- c) Application forms may be obtained from the office of DOGS NSW.

2.3 Lectures and Practical Training Sessions

Lectures and practical training sessions will be conducted. Candidates will be advised of the dates and venues for these sessions. Attendance is compulsory unless extenuating circumstances are advised to the organiser.

An invitation to participate in the Scheme will be withdrawn if questions are not answered honestly or if the answers given are misleading or untrue. DOGS NSW reserves the right to seek verification of any information supplied by the applicant.

If accepted as a candidate, sign a release of DOGS NSW in respect of any liability arising out of the Examination, in such form as DOGS NSW may require.

2.4 Fees:

DOGS NSW Board of Directors will set the fee structure for all phases of the Foundation Judges Training Scheme.

SECTION 3

Training of Foundation Judges

3.1 Theory:

Lectures using live performances and prerecorded performances.

Lectures to potential judges include discussing the rules, the judges' role and obligations, showing what heelwork to music moves are, discussing the differences between Dances With Dogs Heelwork to Music and Dances With Dogs Freestyle. Discussions on entry levels and what would constitute a Starter, Novice, Intermediate and Advanced level routine will also be covered.

Each aspiring judge is required to mark live performances and pre-recorded DVD performances in a simulated situation. Comments, feedback and justification for marks were given will be discussed at the conclusion of each session.

3.2 Practical Training:

Each aspiring judge is required to judge live performances and pre-recorded DVD performances of both Dances With Dogs Heelwork to Music and Dances With Dogs Freestyle in a simulated situation.

Their marks will be entered on the official ANKC Judges Marks Sheet.

Comments, feedback and justification for marks given will be discussed at the conclusion of each session.

3.3 Rules and Regulations:

A lecture on the ANKC Rules and DOGS NSW Regulations will be included in the course.

A written examination on areas covered in the lecture will be included in the open book exam for those aspiring judges who do not already hold a current ANKC accredited judge licence.

SECTION 4

Examinations

4.1 Resource materials

The ANKC Rules for the Conduct of Dances With Dogs Competitions and DOGS NSW Regulations will be made available to all aspiring Foundation Judges.

4.2 Theory Examinations:

To qualify for the Dances With Dogs Practical Examination the Trainee Judges' must obtain an 80% pass or better in both Theory Examinations.

- a) An open book exam covering the ANKC Rules for the Conduct of Dances With Dogs will require the candidate to obtain a pass mark of 80%.
- b) An open book exam covering ANKC Rules and DOGS NSW Regulations will require the candidate to obtain a pass mark of 80%.
- c) All theory examinations shall consist of short answer and or multiple-choice questions.

All examination papers are to be marked by two (2) licenced DWD Judges' who are members of the DOGS NSW Dances With Dogs Committee.

4.3 Practical Examination:

Each aspiring judge will be asked to judge a selection of routines for their Practical Examination. The examination process may be in a simulated situation conducted in the same manner as set down in the Rules for the Conduct of Dances With Dogs Competitions.

To be successful in this component of their training trainee judges must show a complete understanding of the marking system used for each category of Dances With Dogs and the level at which they are judging.

Each aspiring judge is required to mark several judging sheets and be able to substantiate their rationale for the marks that they awarded to each routine.

The standardised criteria in the marking sheet will be used to maintain consistency of marking and training.

Pre-recorded DVDs or Videos will not be used in the practical examinations.

4.3 Approval – ANKC Elevation:

All applicants who have passed both Theory Examinations and the Practical Examination will be recommend by the DOGS NSW Dances With Dogs Committee to the Board of Directors of DOGS NSW for approval as Dances With Dogs Foundation Judge.

4.4 Guide for Judges

A guide for judges has been created and will continue to be developed. This is available from the office of DOGS NSW.

SECTION 5
