

Beyond Obedience: Understanding Behaviour, Science & the Future of Dog Training

A Talk with Sarah Rutten,
Best-selling author of 'The Canine Perspective'

When: Saturday, 13 June 2026

Time: 9.30am - 12.00pm

Where: DOGS NSW Library

The Bill Spilstead Complex for Canine Affairs
44 Luddenham Road, Orchard Hills NSW

Cost: $80 per person, including morning tea.

Join respected dog behaviourist and force-free training advocate Sarah Rutten for a thought-provoking session that digs into the science behind how dogs actually learn and why old-school methods might be doing more harm than good.

With over two decades of experience helping dogs and their people, Sarah is known for her straight-talking, no-BS approach. She'll challenge common myths, explain why dominance theory has been debunked, and explore how reactivity, aggression and anxiety are more often signs of stress, not stubbornness.

Topics covered include:

- * Dominance Theory Debunked
Where it came from, and why it's time to let it go.
- * Why Dogs Really Behave "Badly"
Understanding the role of the nervous system.
- * What Force-Free Training Actually Is
(Hint: It's not just about treats)
- * Body Language & Stress Signals
Learn to read what your dog is really saying.
- * The Stats Behind Punishment
What the research says about long-term effects.

Unpack the myths.
Understand the science.
Build better relationships with your dogs.
